With giant cliffs over the Pacific as huge stone sharp needles stretching in height and plunging into the ocean between mystical sea caves and scalloped beaches, Na Pali Coast is a place almost inaccessible, surrounded by many inspiring legends. Hawaiian legend tells that Pele, goddess of fire, went to Na Pali in search of a home but her sister and rival, Namakaokaha'i, goddess of the sea, drove her away in a violent confrontation whose marks remained visible forever. Protected between Na Pali ribbed walls is Honopū valley that seems to form a seat on the mountain, in which the gods can sit back and admire the constant battles between the natural World.

The details of the Na Pali stool were originally designed on the armchair with the same name. Evoking the breathtaking landscape of Na Pali coast located on Kauai Island, this handmade upholstered piece recreates the incredible natural needle shapes throughout the mountainous slope and it's the perfect piece complete any interior.
