

PLEC LED Off white extensible pendant lamp

Ref. 66213

PLEC is a set of designer wall and pendant lamps created by Alex & Manel Llusçà for indoor lighting. The light source is SMD LED 15W and warm light, integrated into the luminaire, perfect to create comfortable environments. This vintage industrial pendant lamp is ideal not only for the lighting of premises such as restaurants, but also in decorative home lighting. In addition, the extensible version of the pendant lamp will allow you to adjust the lamp to the desired height. A design that combines tradition and modernity thanks to LED technology.
